Press Release Natick, MA

ACCEPT Education Collaborative is pleased to announce the Michael J. Palladino Scholarship Award was presented on Friday, June 9 at the Ashland High School. Congratulations to Cedric Bineli-Messi from Framingham! Cedric was selected to receive the scholarship for 2017.

The scholarship was established in 2007 to honor of Dr. Palladino's legacy of exemplary special education programs and dedication to improving outcomes for students with disabilities. Dr. Palladino was the founding director of ACCEPT Education Collaborative and the scholarship was created upon his retirement after 32 years of leading the collaborative. Dr. Palladino continues to work on a consulting basis for the Collaborative.

Scholarship Criteria

The Michael J. Palladino Scholarship is presented annually to a graduating ACCEPT Education Collaborative student. The student selected to receive the award has attended a Collaborative program for a minimum of three years and demonstrated enthusiasm for life and learning. The scholarship may be used to assist the student with their transition into adult life. The scholarship committee is comprised of the executive director, special education director and collaborative teachers.

Donations to the scholarship fund are welcome.
