

PRESCHOOL/EARLY CHILDHOOD
DIRECTOR JOB-ALIKE

Audience: Preschool Directors and Early Childhood Directors

This Job-Alike Group will provide Preschool Directors an opportunity to network, learn together, share resources and ideas and to build a community of Early Childhood Administrators who have the same passion, drive and interest in improving their practice.

This Group will be focused on current problems of practice that are generated from within the group. The Facilitator will provide structures and approaches to problem solving that will result in a safe learning community for all involved. Each session will provide an opportunity for learning followed by problem-solving and "cracker-barrel" sessions focusing on the current challenges faced by the Directors. The group is limited to 20.

Presenter: Mary Beth Kinkead, M.Ed.,
Principal, Natick Preschool

MaryBeth has been the Principal of Natick Public Schools' Integrated Preschool for five years. The Preschool serves 170 children and their families. Like her colleagues in similar roles, she assists families in navigating the special education evaluation process and when applicable understanding the impact of students' language, motor, play and social skills on their development. Prior to becoming Natick Preschool's principal, MaryBeth served as principal for Hardy Elementary School in Wellesley and Warren Elementary School in Ashland. Her understanding of elementary level student development and curriculum enhances her perspective on preschool student development and special education process.
